To S of 99 — The Secretary to the Government
— 1 — of Mysore, Rev: & General Depts,

SIR,

I have the honor to forward herewith an Extracts from the Inspection notes of Mr. R. B. Plumer, Assistant Secretary to the Government of Mysore, Plague Department, with my remarks thereon, and to request that you will be good as to notify as early as possible the appointment of Mr. Kreemiasakao as District Plague Officer, Chitaldroog District.

2. I would propose that he should ~~act as~~ do the duties of District Plague Officer without prejudice to his existing duties as Plague Officer at present confined to a few places in Davengere Taluq and Harihar Sub. Taluq, and it is hoped that with the appointment as District Plague Officer of an Experienced Officer as M. Sreenivasa Rao in Plague work, the plague may

Remarks of the Officiating Plague Commissioner on the above

I think a District Plague Officer should be appointed if it is not possible for the Deputy Commissioner at this season to spare time for the necessary personal supervision
